

Information about Cambodia

Cambodia | CIA - The World Factbook

www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/geos/cb.html

Cambodia | BBC News - Country Profile

news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/europe/country_profiles/1243892.stm

Cambodia Cultural Profile | Visiting Arts

www.culturalprofiles.net/Cambodia/Directories/Cambodia_Cultural_Profile/-36.html

An in-depth profile which includes information on geography and topography, history, government, economy, people, language, religion and education.

A Country Profile – Cambodia | The Library of Congress

lcweb2.loc.gov/frd/cs/khtoc.html

This detailed resource includes chapters on Historical Setting, The Society and Its Environment, The Economy and Government and Politics. Appropriate for upper high school and tertiary students.

Cambodia Travel Information and Travel Guide | Lonely Planet

www.lonelyplanet.com/cambodia

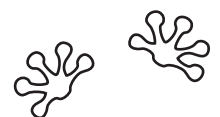

Information on travel in Cambodia, including weather, geography, fast facts and main tourist destinations.

Cambodia | IRIN Humanitarian News and Analysis

www.irinnews.org/country.aspx?country=KH

An up-to date collection of news articles about development in Cambodia collated by IRIN, a project of the UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs.

Resources and lesson plans

Cambodia: A Classroom Study | Cornell University

seap.einaudi.cornell.edu/curriculum_cambodia

Developed by the Southeast Asia Program Outreach at Cornell University, this resource includes resources on Cambodia's name, culture, history, groups, food and folktales as well as related classroom activities.

Resources for Teachers | Picture my World*

picturemyworld.cafod.org.uk/for-teachers/

CAFOD's comprehensive resources include a 16-page Teachers Guide to Cambodia (includes country profile, CAFOD's work in Cambodia, classroom activities, a guide to online games, as well as mini project on Buddhism), an About Cambodia PowerPoint presentation and Welcome to Cambodia activities and a worksheet for children.

Kids 4 Kids - Lessons in Hope from Cambodia: Resource Kit | TEAR Australia*

www.tear.org.au/resources/items/kids4kids-lessons-in-hope-from-cambodia-resource-kit/

TEAR Australia's resource includes games and learning experiences to introduce students to the lives of children who live in the Cambodian-Thai border town of Poipet, with age-appropriate resources for lower, middle and upper primary levels.

Lesson Plan – Cambodian New Year Mini-Unit | Utah State University

teacherlink.ed.usu.edu/tlresources/units/Byrnes-celebrations/camb.n.y.html

Teacher Kathy Moss presents a lesson plan for exploring one of Cambodia's significant celebrations, Khmer New Year.

What's Going On: Lesson Plan on Landmines | UN Works

www.un.org/works/goingon/mines/lessonplan_landmines.html

This UN Works page includes an overview of where, why and how landmines are used along with essential questions for classroom discussion and further research.

*Note these resources are written from a Christian perspective.

Teachers may want to draw on particular aspects of this resource depending on their school's cultural and religious context.

Resources and lesson plans (continued)

Resources Index - Cambodia | Oxfam Education

www.oxfam.org.uk/education/resources/category.htm?125

Oxfam Great Britain's education site includes Cambodia-specific classroom resources on food security, water and garment factories, as well as resources and lesson ideas for building visual literacy.

Asia content in the Australian Curriculum | Asia Education Foundation

www.asiaeducation.edu.au/resource/australian_curriculum_audit.html

The Asia Education Foundation identifies Asia-related content in the Australian Curriculum for English, history, mathematics and science at each year level from Foundation to Year 10.

United Nations Cyberschoolbus | Global Teaching and Learning Project

cyberschoolbus.un.org

This UN resource includes country profiles, quizzes, games and curriculum resources on key issues in developing countries. Many issues featured are relevant to the Cambodian context, including peace education, poverty, demining and human rights.

